General Information

Message from the Director:

Ushering in the New Year is always filled with hope, energy, new promises, and new commitments. Then, by January 7th, we look at ourselves in the mirror asking, "How am I going to make this happen?" The Rio Rancho Parks, Recreation & Community Services Department (PRCS) has a tremendous New Year's selection to help you achieve your new goals. The Department's wide array of offerings can help any Rio Ranchoan achieve at least one of their New Year's resolutions.

First, there is the ever-present goal of fitness. Improvements in health and fitness top the list annually for New Year's resolutions, but nearly 80 percent of them fail. Why? Largely because people have a hard time finding a fitness regimen that fits their lifestyle. That's no problem here in Rio Rancho! From boot camp to yoga, from youth sports leagues and clinics to adult leagues, there are fitness opportunities for every fitness level and every age. Youth basketball, tennis, and football leagues are available for those young people looking for fun and active competition. Adults also have the opportunity to play these sports in the open adult league. For those seeking fitness on an individual level, there is boot camp, water aerobics, studio cycling, and yoga. Each program invites a variety of fitness levels at a variety of times. One size does not fit all at PRCS, so programs are made available for all residents.

How about that resolution to get involved or to volunteer? The City is always seeking adults who want to give their time and talents to support the senior center, leagues, or programs. Volunteering to work with children or seniors is a rewarding experience. The Meadowlark Senior Center, or one of our youth sports leagues are a great way to try out your New Year's resolution for volunteering. Try it out—We need you!

On behalf of my entire staff here in PRCS, Happy New Year and best wishes for 2019!

See you in Rio Rancho!

Sincerely,

 Connie Peterson
 Director, PRCS

Mission Statement

"To create and maintain spaces and activities that grow a greater sense of community and enhance the quality of life for its residents."

How to Watch a Good Program Die

Nothing kills a recreation program faster than residents who wait until the last minute to register. There is a point when a program must be cancelled or modified if there is insufficient registration. All programs require a high level of coordination often including facility scheduling, staffing, volunteer recruitment and purchasing of supplies.

Photo Policy

Participants permit the taking of photos and videos of themselves and their children during Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department activities, programs, and special events for publication and use as the department deems necessary.

Volunteers

Many of our programs depend on volunteer help. If you wish to put your expertise to use in a program or would like to find out what volunteer opportunities are available, please call us at (505) 891-5015.

Sponsorship

The Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department has many opportunities for sponsorships. We offer only first-class, quality programs and special events. If you are interested in how we can help you reach your customers and promote your business, contact Connie Peterson at (505) 891-5015.

Online Registration System

You are able to register for programs offered through the Parks and Recreation Department online by going to the following website: www.rnm.gov/ActiveNet

In addition to registering for classes online, you will still be able to register for programs by calling Rio Rancho City Hall at (505) 891-5015.
