Questions and Answers

1. Question: In order to provide the level of detail requested in the proposal and evaluation, it would be helpful to have some additional pages; is it possible to increase the number of pages from six to ten?

Answer: Yes, proposals shall now be limited to a maximum length of ten (10) pages.

Revisions to Section 3. Proposed Format and Organization Requirements

- 3.2.1 Proposals shall be limited to a maximum length of ten (10) pages. The Required Information Form, Table of Contents, the cost proposal, any requested redlined changes to contract related documents, and other non-scored informational appendices will not be included in the total proposal page count. An additional cover letter may be submitted with a proposal but will not be a scored item and will not be included in the total page count. Any information not included in the page count (i.e. supplemental cover letter, non-scored appendices) may not be reviewed by the evaluation committee. Additional appendices will not be forwarded for review by the RFP Committee. Proposals must include page numbers for each section of the Proposal.

3.2.2.b Section 2: Response to Evaluation Criteria (maximum ten (10) pages).

All other provisions of the Contract Documents shall remain unchanged. Each Offeror should ensure that they have received all addenda and amendments to this RFP before submitting their proposal.
